South Windsor, Connecticut

SOUTH WINDSOR

*is tobacco fields plowed
in rich red rows;*

*New England churches
with white bell towers
and oak trees in the yard;*

*It is irises bursting
in the springtime;*

field workers simmering in summer; leaf heaps piled in fall; and fir trees burdened in winter.

SOUTH WINDSOR
is historic houses and

country lanes;

It is tobacco sheds

and picturesque mills;

South Windsor is squat, old libraries with meager shelves and

*brisk, brick post offices with a bright
flag flying;*

It is a lazy river flowing

South Windsor is a growing community;

*and busy sprinklers
spurting across the fields;*

*it is a town of traditions
on the PATHWAY
TOWARDS PROGRESS.*

W

ITH SINCERE GRATITUDE,

WE the class of 1968 dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Paul T. Bordonaro. Since he joined S.W.H.S. in 1965, his cheerfulness and concern for others have made him an unofficial advisor for students of every class. As we became Juniors, he was asked to undertake the position officially, and the enthusiasm and willingness to help with which he assumed this responsibility have indebted us to him. His was the spirit which carried us from prom preparations to prom clean-up; his were the energies which helped us turn a sea of gold tobacco netting and a roll of plush red wallpaper into an elegant Viennese ballroom and, two days later, his were the energies which helped us fold away tables and clear the hall of basket after basket of pastel flowers. It is, therefore, his spirit of unselfishness for which we wish most sincerely to thank Mr. Bordonaro.

YOUTH

Youth wanders through dark and light, salt and honey, day and night—time brings the summer rain, the pain of love, the joy in pain and slowly his train
of thought turns to sunset, sunrise, a battlefield, his best friend dies and youth cries
but dries his eyes
and then the skies
turn blue again for awhile and youth can smile
but only for awhile,
for happiness is not the end of the rainbow. Oh, no!
It is a state of being.
Youth seems to misunderstand this at times of confusion and chimes ring out from wrong directions and youth is subject to correction from elders whose authority is sometimes not respected, for reprimand is not effected in youth's early years
and harsh words only bring tears when youth stands alone and confused.
Sometimes he is used
in his naivete
when the rocky way
is made opaque
by fog which takes its toll on youth
as does the wind and rain.
The mariner will tell you this;
nature brings joy as well as pain.
How is youth to survive this life of salt and honey, day and night?
Yes, he can try to fight the wrong and make it right.
But this does not apply to everything that tries his patience and his happiness.
Youth must learn this:
to accept the joy and pain as two that complement, as does the salt and honey, false and true to let experience guide the way through a life
not black or white, but gray to compromise and to accept his Father's command—
and then,
Youth will be man.

Chaponis, Roy Pace

By PETE ZANARDI

STORRS — "These are tournament games," said South Windsor Coach Charlie Sharos, "and tournament games are always nice to win. We're thankful."

Sharos' 18th ranked Bobcats, guided by some fine work by freshman Tom Roy, 19 points and 20 rebounds, and senior Sy Chaponis, eliminated ninth ranked Norwich Tech from the Class M tournament last night with a 56-49 win at E. O. Smith High.

South Windsor becomes the first tournament test for top ranked and undefeated Guilford next Tuesday at a still undetermined site. What Sharos admits to and what Guilford mentor Red Sullivan, who watched, probably surmised, is that the Bobcats will have to be a whole lot better to stay with the downstagers.

"It wasn't our best game," Sharos said. "We played and we shot poorly. It's the first time in the tournament for all these kids. I guess it's a case of tourney jitters."

It was Chaponis' streak of five points in the last two minutes that finally turned the tide, giving South Windsor a 54-47 advantage with a minute left.

"We had an abundance of opportunities to open this game up," Sharos continued. "It was only in the last minute of the game that we finally put it away."

The Bobcats enjoyed several big leads, but saw all of them reduced by the game Norwich crew.

"We've been a comeback ball club all year," Sharos said. "I think this team will be ready for a peak performance against Guilford. Maybe we just had to get this one out of our system."

Sharos had high praise for his 6-5 freshman Roy. "He's coming," Sharos said. "Without him in there, we're lost. His rebounding was a vital factor tonight. He can work both boards equally well for us. We try to get the ball to him as much as we can."

"And Chaponis really banged the boards tonight, too," the former Springfield College athlete continued. "Sy gave another 100 per cent effort."

Reserve George Fortin also fell in line of praise from his coach. Fortin was impressive in the final canto, especially on defense.

It was Roy, however, who collected the lion's share of the plaudits, not only from his coach but from others as well, including the outspoken Sullivan. Although hampered by a poor night at the line, it was clear the freshman is the vital cog in Sharos' machine.

Sharos agreed it was defense that probably turned the tide —

South Knocks East Out Of

The East Windsor Panthers played a fierce game against the South Windsor Bobcats. From the floor, the Panthers shot an unbelievable 47 per cent — a mark which would make collegiate teams envious. East would have emerged victorious except for one factor — the Bobcats played like the Boston Celtics.

From the opening moments of the game, the crowd realized that they were about to witness a spectacle. Behind the strength of Chaponis' four hoops, South was up by two with three minutes left in the first period. Coach Sharos of South Windsor knew that he had to add some zip to South's attack if the Bobcats were to maintain their lead against dangerous East. He inserted red-headed Jim Keefe — who rallied with his finest performance of the season — into the lineup. Keefe immediately teamed with Ed Zagorski to make four steals which led to eight points, while center Tommy Roy added a steal and several blocks to complete East's demoralization. When the quarter ended South had built up an 18-12 advantage, as Keefe notched four points.

South Increases Lead

When the half was over, South had increased its lead to 33-20, with Roy shining both offensively and defensively.

When the third quarter started the peppy Bobcats could hardly be contained. With 3:36 left in the third period, the Sharos men were up 43-22. Roy and Chaponis combined with Keefe to make markers during this middle quarter, stuffed Muka and then scored off an offensive rebound to ignite the sport. When Roy picked up his fourth foul, Dwight Foster picked up the slack with a strong defensive performance. South held a commanding 51-36 position when the high scoring quarter was completed.

With a 60-39 lead with 4:11 remaining in the game, Coach Sharos began substituting. East was still troubled against the inspired play of South' second string during the last minute of play. When the final buzzer rang, South had gained revenge against a team which had earlier earned an overtime victory versus the Bobcats, and had knocked East out of first place in the North defense and Norwich's foul trouble. The losers, sticking to a man-to-man defense, committed 25 fouls, sending South Windsor to the line 34 times. The Bobcats hit on only 14 attempts. Norwich was home for 14.

Bobcat Sports

Although South Windsor didn't take advantage of the Norwich "lift" they did benefit by the foul bonanza. Three Norwich starters fouled out, including Phil Kensel (late in the third period), Frank Herrick (late in the final quarter) and Vin Hodge (in the last half minute).

Other M. action last night saw St. Bernard's beat Morgan 58-39; Killingly to Plainfield 71-69 and Wilcox Tech score 89-76 win over Wolcott.

Wilcox meets Middletown; Windsor looks to check St. Bernard's and Southbury gets Killingly in Class M playdown action Tuesday.

South Windsor, Ranked 18th, Upsets Norwich Tech, 56-49

STORRS (Special) Eighteenth downs, Thursday night, with a rated South Windsor's 18-19, victory over ninth ranked Norwich Regional Tech at E. Smith High School.

The Bobcats led at every turn, 14-11, 25-22 and 39-34 in a close contest and Norwich was never out of the ballgame. The Tech team did lead briefly at the start of the second half but the Bobcats came back to go in front to stay and never by a comfortable margin.

Tom Roy was high scorer for South Windsor with 19 points.

NCCC First Place

Central Connecticut Conference place with a 66-46 conquest. The name of the game was team work. With Botticello and Zagorski — the two playmakers — Keefe, Chaponis, and Roy all giving top notch performances, East hardly stood a chance. The dead eye Bobcats converted 29 of 47 shoots from the floor. When East would ignite a rally, the Bobcats would slow the game down and work the ball around for the sure basket.

Panthers Get Careless

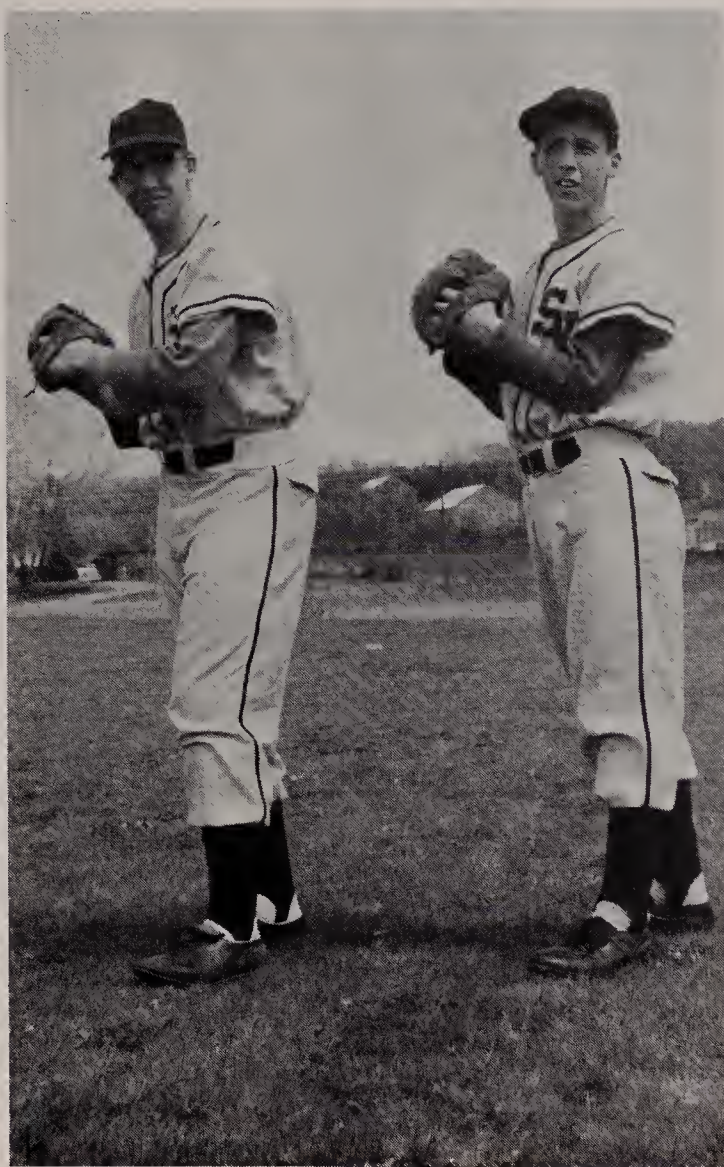

With panic setting in, the Panthers would make a careless mistake which the Bobcats would capitalize upon to spark their own blitzkrieg. Zagorski, who displayed tremendous ball handling, and Botticello broke East's full court press with lit tle effort while Botticello and Keefe forced the Panthers to continually make turn overs or toss the ball away. South's aggressive and alert defense compelled East to make hurried shots and caused most of the loose unattended balls. Chaponis, Roy and Keefe held total command of both backboards. A big factor was that Roy displayed Flynn. Flynn stuffed five times by Roy, scored but one field goal and continually lost rebounding position to Keefe, Chaponis, or Roy. Roy tallied 21 points, the games' high scorer. Forwards Keefe and Chaponis hit for 10 and 14 markers respectively while back courtmen Botticello and Zagorski teamed to score 13 points. Corcorran led the Panthers with 18 points.
